

Resolution 4: The creature's bellowing harmonizes with the machinations of the ship as its body dissolves among the washing sea below you. With the boarders dispatched, the faithful members of the crew who've maintained their wits rush to the mending of the ship. Exhausted, you shamble back up to the passenger deck.

You pass by corpses of things unknown, charred remnants of the ship's finery, scarred innocents too scared to move from their desperate hiding spots, but nothing will bar you from the welcoming sheets of your cabin bed. The ship's seen better nights, but there are more capable hands than yours to fix her wounds. You'll tend to your own in the morning.
